

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May, 2010

Contact: Becky Sanchez (480) 963-1900, x2006, BSanchez@SetonCHS.org

Seton Catholic Alumna, Shannon Desmond '07 receives Prestigious Awards from Seton Hall University

At the 2010 Stillman School of Business Integrity and Professionalism Awards Ceremony at Seton Hall University, Seton Catholic graduate of 2007 was awarded the Mills Prize for Academic Excellence, the only recipient of her junior class. She was also awarded the Mutual Benefit Life Scholarship for her academic excellence in the field of Marketing.

Shannon also plays for the Seton Hall University Pirates Women's Soccer team and in 2008 was named a Big East Academic All-Star. While attending Seton Catholic Prep, Shannon was recipient of the "Scholar Athlete Award" all four years of her attendance.

Seton Hall University was founded in 1856 by Bishop James Roosevelt Bayley and is the oldest Catholic, United States diocesan university, under the Archdiocese of Newark. The school is located in South Orange, New Jersey, 14 miles west of New York City.

Shannon and her parents, Geri and Daniel Desmond, live in Chandler.

Seton Catholic Preparatory High School is located at 1150 N. Dobson Rd., in Chandler. For questions regarding this media release please call Becky Sanchez, Assistant Director of Advancement at (480) 963-1900, x2006, or email at BSanchez@SetonCHS.org.

##END##